

WORLD PEACE

A TACTICAL APPROACH

Join us for a new series of Fireside discussions exploring social division, human conflict and the Bahá'í Faith's teachings and plan for the foundations of world peace.

FRIDAY

MARCH 6TH

The equality of women and men, and its role in healing social division

FRIDAY

APRIL 3RD

The elimination of racial prejudice — a social necessity and religious fundamental

FRIDAY

MAY 1ST

The oneness of religions and freedom from religious exclusivity

Doors open at 7pm, program begins at 7:30

at the

The Bahá'í Center of Washtenaw County - 5550 Morgan Road, Ypsilanti, MI 48197

Refreshments will be served.

Approaching faith, humanity, society and the pressing issues of our time, presenting a Bahá'í perspective in a forum for open discussion

Bahá'í Faith

BAHÁ'Í CENTER of WASHTENAW COUNTY

BahaiCenterWashtenawCounty.org

(734) 528-1919